

IT Relocation

Business Services

Office re-organisations and re-shuffles are common in today's technology dependent environment. Company downtime needs to be kept to a minimum.

echo's IT Relocation Service provides all the project planning, decommissioning, transportation and re-commissioning of your IT infrastructure.

Whether it's a move across the corridor or to different premises, our dedicated project manager will work in conjunction with your internal team to ensure that the move is completed on time and within budget.

echo is totally flexible and will carry out your IT move when it suits you, be it within normal office hours, at night or over a weekend.

With our fleet of dedicated vehicles, warehousing, configuration centre and qualified staff, we have all the elements to ensure successful relocations time and time again.
